

Elementary Health 4, Semester 2

Carone Learning Category: Foundations

Subject: Health

Recommended Grade Level: 4th Grade

Course Credit: One semester*

Recommended Pre-Requisites: None

*Full year available when combined with Elementary Health 4, Semester 1

Course Description

Elementary Health 4 helps young learners establish a basic understanding of the aspects of health. Students focus on the various aspects of their health and how they can make healthy choices. Topics of study include personal safety, reducing illness, avoiding bullying, nutrition, healthy friendships, emergency situations, the human body, and the functions of body systems.

Units & Sections

This course is divided into the following Units and Sections.

SEMESTER 2

Unit 5: Influences on Health

- 5.1 Influences on Health
- 5.2 Evaluation of Health Sources
- 5.3 Consumer Health
- 5.4 Environmental Health

Unit 6: Safety & Emergencies

- 6.1 Injury Prevention
- 6.2 Household Safety
- 6.3 Emergency Preparedness
- 6.4 Emergency 911

Unit 7: Avoiding Bullying

- 7.1 Emotions & Behavior
- 7.2 Personal Boundaries
- 7.3 Trusted Adults
- 7.4 Bullying & Harassment

Unit 8: The Human Body

- 8.1 Human Life Cycle
- 8.2 Muscle & Skeletal Systems
- 8.3 Digestive & Nervous Systems
- 8.4 Respiratory System

Course Tasks

Each section has the following tasks:

- Game Plan—an outline of tasks for that section
- Lesson—multimedia lessons about the section topic

Elementary Health 4, S2

- Quiz—answer questions from the lesson
- Brain Exercise—respond to a fitness question
- Assignment—section assignment

The items marked with * should be submitted for a grade.

Pacing

There are 16 sections in this course. Each section is designed to be completed in about one week's time. However, students may take more or less time as needed. A recommended pacing guide is provided within the course.

Parent & Teacher Guides

Parent and teacher guides available.

Materials

There are no required materials for this course.

Technical Requirements

An internet connection and computer or tablet hardware is required. Software requirements include a PDF reader, word-processing application (such as Word). Free downloadable software is available for each of these.